Port Jervis City School District Honors late Teacher/Coach Gymnasium Scoring Table to be named in Honor of LuAnn McCarthy

December 19, 2016 – Port Jervis, NY – The Port Jervis High School Athletic Department will unveil a new gymnasium scorer's table in a ceremony tomorrow, Tuesday, December 20, 2016, 6:10 pm. The table will be named in honor of the late LuAnn McCarthy. McCarthy was a physical education teacher, longtime coach, and official score keeper at Port Jervis High School. McCarthy passed away last year after a long battle with cancer. The table is a gift from the athletic department and PJHS Class of 2015.

School officials, members of the Class of 2015, and LuAnn McCarthy's family and friends will unveil the new scorer's table. This table will be used for numerous PJ Raider sporting events, pep rallies and other gatherings.

Ceremony to begin Tuesday, December 20, 2016, 6:10 pm, prior to the start of the boys basketball game vs Fallsburg.
